Panchayats - Forests - Kudligi Taluk - Jummobanahalli Reserve forest - disafforestation - proposals - submitted

I submit proposals for the disafforestation of an extent of 264.33 acres of Kumathi village included in the reserve forest of Jummobanahalli, Kudligi Taluk for assignment to the scheduled caste members of Kumathi and Thammayyanguddam villages. This area proposed for disafforestation contains only a stunted growth of Thuggali trees and a few late trees valued at Rs.215/-, and does not contain any thick growth of trees.

2. The District Forest Officer, Anantapur and the Forest Panchayat, who were consulted in the matter agree to the disreservation of the area proposed as there is no tree growth of any value.

The draft notification under Sec 24 of the Forest Act and the Sketch submitted by the Collector with his letter read above require modification in the light of the following remarks:—

(1) The draft notifn describes the area proposed for disreservation anti-clockwise. The description should be Clockwise & should commence from the north west corner of the area to be disreserved.

(2) There seems to be some clerical error in the fourth boundary description which needs rectification. It should be stated whether S.No. 282 forms part of the southern boundary.

(3) the existing boundary of the reserve & the area proposed to be disreserved, should be indicated on the sketch in green & red respectively. The sketch should illustrate every detail which is referred to in the notes.

The Collector is requested to revise the sketch and the notes accordingly and resubmit them at an early date
